9. ☐ Other _____.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

* The primary reasons for allowance for claims 1-8 are the inclusion of the limitations of a printhead assembly comprising a plurality of carriers that are mountable, end-to-end, on a support structure so that each carrier engages a respect wall portion, the wall portions and the carriers defining a plurality of ink supply conduits; a printhead that is mounted on each carrier, each printhead having a plurality of ink supply holes, at least one ink supply hole being in fluid communication with a respective ink supply conduit; and at least one printed circuit board that is mountable on an opposite side of the base portion, the, or each, printed circuit board being connected to the printheads. It is these limitations, either alone or combined, that have not been taught, found, or suggested by prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

- Beerling et al. (6,513,907) teach a page-wide printhead comprising a plurality of printhead segments and electrical contact is provided on a surface of ink ejectors common with the ink ejecting nozzles.

- McElfresh et al. (6,575,559) a page-wide printhead comprising a plurality of printhead chips disposed on a substrate and a sub-substrate.
